Meet Lumi

Lumi was a little elephant who saw the world in black and white. One morning, a butterfly invited him to look closer.

Point to the butterfly. Say: Hello!

Lumi Looks Closely

The butterfly showed Lumi that every feeling can have a color.

Point to something tiny. Now point to something big.

More Than One Feeling

Lumi noticed he could feel happy, worried and calm at different times. Every feeling belonged.

Point to the face that matches you now.

Match the Feelings

The sun feels happy. Water feels calm. A star feels brave. A heart feels kind.

Match each face to its picture.

Count the Night Stars

Lumi looked up and remembered every color he had found.

Count five stars. Touch each star as you count.

My Colors Today

All of Lumi's feelings came together like a rainbow. No feeling had to disappear.

Color each heart to show how you feel today.

Little Color Explorer Certificate

You looked closely, moved, colored and helped Lumi welcome every feeling.
